The Urban Institute has been awarded a grant to study probation practices in Arizona, including probation cases under the jurisdiction of the Arizona Superior Court in Pima County. The Urban Institute will provide technical assistance and make recommendations for reducing probation revocations. In support of that research, the Administrative Office of the Courts, the Urban Institute, and the Superior Court in Pima County have approved a Research Data Sharing Agreement appended to this Order.

Therefore, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Adult Probation Department of the Superior Court in Pima County shall share probation records with the Administrative Office of the Courts and the Urban Institute consistent with the terms of the Research Data Sharing Agreement.

Attachments to the agreement are available through the office of the Chief Probation Officer.
